

Awards Nomination

All State Neighborhoods Awards

The State Planning Committee would like to recognize the dedication and commitment of neighborhood leaders from throughout the state of Florida, for their unwavering efforts to improve the neighborhoods and communities in which they live. Award recipients will be announced at the awards breakfast on Saturday, October 15, 2016. Recipients must be present to receive their award.

Please consider nominating someone from your community or neighborhood who meets the following criteria:

- participates in the community (association member, neighborhood watch participant, block captain, concerned citizen, etc.)
- trailblazes neighborhood initiatives or grassroots efforts, or goes above and beyond in neighborhood improvement efforts
- strengthens the community through inspirational leadership or promoting good neighbor relationships

Nominations must:

- include the same information requested in the Nomination Form
- not exceed two 8.5" x 11" sheets of paper, double-sided (or use the attached form)
- be postmarked by September 13, 2016
- be limited to one nomination per FNC registrant
